

The Great Escape: Your Guide to Early Retirement and Financial Freedom

This volume is a guide to planning early retirement, which is split into three main sections. Section one gives the reader an overview of planning for an early retirement. The author looks at financial forecasting and explains what financial entitlements there are. In addition it helps the reader face up to fears and misgivings surrounding early retirement. Section two gives tips and guidance on what happens when you leave and what you need to consider if you have any relocation plans. There is useful advice on how to look after your health and what to do in your spare time. The final section looks at the financing of early retirement, advising you how to choose tax advantageous investments and avoid common financial pitfalls. There is a special section on women and pensions, with a list of contact details for useful organizations.
